

The President's Identity Theft Task Force Seeks Public Comment

The OCC is a member of the President's Identity Theft Task Force, established by Executive Order on May 10, 2006, and chaired by U.S. Attorney General Alberto R. Gonzales and Federal Trade Commission Chairman Deborah Platt Majoras. The President charged the Task Force with developing a coordinated strategic plan to combat identity theft.

Click here www.ftc.gov/bcp/edu/microsites/idtheft/taskforce.htm to view a document soliciting public comment on several issues and recommendations being considered by the Task Force. Comments must be submitted by Friday, January 19, 2007, in the manner described in the document.